STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1908.

NO. 12.

HIGHLAND.

Mrs. Lena Butt is considerably improved. Mrs. E. J. Mills was quite sick this week.

John Bastin sold his home and lot of 10 acres to Rev. J. M. Cook for Rev. Henry Mills for $200.

Some of the farmers begin to think they will not get to put in their crops on account of so much rain.

Eugene Hutchison has rented his farm to Mrs. Harve Watts, and he has taken possession of his father's farm.

Thos. Hutchison, of Somerset, was here last week to bid his uncle's family good-bye. Mrs. C. M. Young has gone to Science Hill and Somerset in the interest of the new Methodist church here. Mrs. Jane Herzog is visiting Mrs. Mary Baugh. Mr. Jeff. Hale has moved to his new residence while Mr. H. Hatfield has taken possession of Hale's late residence. Mart Surber has moved back from Burnside.

Mr. Put Warfield, of Casey, has moved to the B. Spires place. Abel James has moved to the Baughman farm near Butt's store. Lark Vanhook has moved back from Somerset. The Gastineau Bros., of Garrard county, have bought a piece of land of Mr. H. Hatfield and are putting up a house on it for Mrs. Flora Walls, widow of H. H. Walls. The writer with W. G. Acton and Misses Muriel Acton and Effie Young, of this place, and the Misses Brown, of Pleasant Point, and Miss Bertha Thompson, of Kingsville, attended the funeral of Ezra Estes at Good Hope church near Woodstock, Pulaski county, where in the absence of a minister the funeral services were conducted by a young Mr. Colson and Mr. McWheeden. This was the old home of Mr. Estes, who was only 19 years of age and had been battling with the dread disease, consumption, for a year or more, having just returned from a four month's stay in Arizona, only two weeks before his death. The house was crowded to overflowing with schoolmates and a more impressive funeral the writer never saw before. To the sorrowing relatives we say weep not as those who weep without hope, but live so as to meet Ezra in that Heavenly city.

A Party Calamity.

Samuel L. Roberts, editor of the leading Republican paper in the State, the Lexington Leader, says:

The election of Gov. Bradley to the United States Senate by an unholy alliance was accomplished by the sacrifice of every hope of securing non-partisan registration, election and redistricting laws, and by the practical repudiation of the Republican platform declaration in favor of a uniform county unit bill, and it has wrecked Gov. Wilson's administration so far as constructive political legislation is concerned, and opened the way for the rehabilitation of Gov. Beckham on a temperance platform.

The United States Senatorship was not worth the price the Republicans of Kentucky paid for it, and we believe the day will come when the election of Senator Bradley will be looked upon as a party calamity.

GEO. B. SAUFLEY, M. C. L. G. C.

GEORGE O. BARNES.

The death of the Rev. George O. Barnes removed a figure which some years ago attracted a great deal of attention in Kentucky and many other States and countries. Opinion was much divided with reference to him, but little doubt was ever entertained as to his sincerity, and the labors that he performed were stupendous. His last years were passed in comparative obscurity so far as his native State is concerned, and it is probable that the infirmities of age restrained the restless activity which so long characterized him.

Mr. Barnes began life as a regular minister of the Presbyterian church. His work as a missionary in India was not marked so far as is known by any departure from the standard of his church. While stationed at Stanford, after the war, he began to give utterances to certain doctrines which were not in accord with the teachings of the church. Efforts were made to get him to withhold their utterance, but after a time he broke with the church entirely, and set up as a free lance. His first protracted meeting as an evangelist after leaving the church was at Lebanon, in December, 1876, and he attracted great attention by the fervor of his utterances. Afterward he held meetings at a number of other points, and in all of them he made a decided impression, and the number of people who professed communion under his ministrations was very large. His powers as a public speaker were extraordinary.

So far as orthodoxy, according to the symbols of any church is concerned, Mr. Barnes made little pretension to it. He was reported from time to time to have given his adherence to the systems of various teachers, mostly men outside of the regular communions, though some of these reports may have been incorrect. It was not possible, however, for his admirers to follow him in any connected system of theology, for he changed his position from time to time. There were many, however, who believed in the man, and who were always eager to hear him, no matter what brand of theology he was under-stoed to favor.

Among the ideas of Mr. Barnes was that of the faith cure and his home at Stanford, known as the "Pink Cottage," was long the resort of people seeking relief from a variety of diseases. In process of time this was given up. Whether Mr. Barnes changed his opinions on this subject or not, it is certain that the faith cure attracted less attention in his later ministrations. His converts connected themselves with various churches, and some of them with none at all. It is impossible to say what proportion of them remained true to the professions which they made during his meetings.

While he will be remembered as a peculiar force in the religious world, the want of continuity in his teachings will prevent his passing into history either as the founder of a sect or as a champion of any particular doctrine, beyond his statement that "God is Love," a teaching by no means peculiar to him. Nevertheless he will long be remembered as a pulpits orator of peculiar eloquence and power.—Courier Journal.

Weak women get prompt and lasting help by using Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, anti-septic suppositories, with full information how to proceed are interestingly told of in my book "No. 4 For Women." The languid, lifeless feeling that comes with Spring and early Summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of Winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oft-times weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c.

Seven men were arrested at Murray on warrants charging them with being night riders, the specific allegation being "banding and confederating to injure others." The Horse Show.

Mortal man never saw a better lot of horses than were exhibited at the annual horse show yesterday. They were here from 300-pound Shetlands to 1,600-pound Percherons and all were good ones. Space forbids a lengthy mention but we hope we do not miss any in this summary:

H. W. Curry, of Eaton, O., showed a 1,600-pound Percheron.

A. G. T. Smith showed a two-year-old by Goldbond which was well liked.

R. E. Goddard, of Mercer, had the grand old stallion, Red Leaf, on hand.

Doe Gray, Hugh Reid Foster's Shetland, was very popular with the women and children.

Moreland Chief, the property of Howard VanArsdale, was greatly liked by the horse lovers.

T. B. Walker had on exhibition Rex Arbuckle, a fast-stepping, high acting black, of good breeding.

A. T. Traylor showed his black stallion, Stonewall Jackson, Jr., and won additional friends for him.

Dowhatan, by Dignity Dare, a splendid animal of great promise is owned and was shown by L. B. Owens.

F. Reid did not have Dorsey Gold-dust here but he showed General Simmons, a splendid harness stallion.

Pence, Jr., John Z. Spoonamore's 16-hand son of Old Pence, made a good impression and won friends for himself.

Grant Monical, 2244, by Gambetta Wilkes, owned by R. G. Evans and L. K. Rogers, of Danville, won much praise.

The only thoroughbred present was Santon, W. P. Givens' fine horse. He was a great racer and is proving a fine breeder.

J. M. Pettus' Beau Nabor was one of the popular horses shown. He is by Old Nabor, dam by Norval. See about him elsewhere.

M. S. Baughman gave the crowd a chance to look at a first-class jack in Choice Goods, the champion jack of Tennessee last year.

Dishon & Smith's Ante Carlo was conspicuous for his absence. The old fellow is a stepper and he made the other horses go here last year.

The Warfield, the magnificent trotting-bred stallion of S. M. Owens, a good individual and a royally bred horse. His colts show what he can do.

C. C. Carpenter made a good show with Prospect, the handsome son of Dignity Dare. This magnificent horse promises to rival his sire as a breeder.

Dr. G. G. Perry's Don Varrick was in good condition and was well liked by the large crowd. He is a richly bred stallion as his pedigree elsewhere will show.

R. S. Scudder had two good ones in Chester S. and Chester Peavine. The latter is a young horse of great style and action and ought to be a great breeder.

J. R. Beazley showed his three stallions, Lincoln Squirrel, Happy Brumel and Red Light, all good individuals of fine breeding. See their pedigrees on this issue.

Dignity Dare, D. S. Carpenter's great sire, attracted a great deal of attention and was much admired. He behaved himself well and looked pretty as a picture.

Ashland Brook and King Eagle, owned by S. T. Harris and R. B. Woods. The former a splendidly bred trotter and the latter a saddle-bred stallion of the first water.

J. C. Bailey had the grand old stallion, Preston, in fine condition and he was greatly admired. W. O. Walker's two-year-old stud by Preston, was also shown and he attracted a great deal of attention.

Almont Dare, which horse has just been registered, was well shown by Mr. Smith T. Powell. A fall colt by him and owned by W. H. Murphy was also exhibited. Read in this issue Almont Dare's breeding.

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the Spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Ike S. Knight, a well-known citizen of North Fort Worth, Tex., armed with a double-barrel shotgun, ran amuck, and as a result one man is dead and two others are probably fatally wounded.

Gov. WILLSON heard arguments in favor of the pardoning of James Howard and Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in the murder of William Goebel, but postponed action, and another hearing will be had to-day, when it is expected that Commonwealth's Attorney Robert Franklin will be present. The hearing was public, in the Senate chamber at Frankfort, and a large crowd was present. While we feel almost certain that the governor will pardon Powers and probably let Howard go too, we sincerely hope that he will let the law take its course in Powers' case. Because 10 jurors out of 48 claimed to think Powers is innocent should be no reason for executive interference. If Powers is really innocent and wants to prove that he is, he should demand another trial forthwith and immediately. His desire, or rather demand for a pardon is to us the surest sign of his guilt.

The name of Gov. Charles E. Hughes was presented to the Republican party as a candidate for the nomination for President by the Republican party of New York in convention. An effort to have the State Convention demand that all district delegates vote for Gov. Hughes until a nomination was made was defeated after a sharp debate. The platform relates almost exclusively to National issues, and besides warmly endorsing President Roosevelt's Administration, favors tariff revision, the maintenance of the policy of protection and legislation looking to a more elastic currency.

By the judgment of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, in an exhaustive opinion delivered by Justice M. M. Neill, the Standard Oil Company is ousted from the State of Tennessee for the acts of the company at Gallatin, Tenn., in restraining trade. By the judgment of the court the Standard can only engage in inter-State commerce as far as Tennessee is concerned.

BEACH HARGIS, who killed his father, Judge James Hargis, was refused bail after a hearing, before Judge Adams, which lasted two days at Jackson. Hargis entered, and tempted to prove, a plea of self-defense. Two witnesses testified that they saw Judge Hargis choke and beat the son who shot him.

SIXTY-FOUR out of 84 counties in Illinois voted dry, thereby putting 970 saloons out of business. "The rum saloon must go," it seems.

POLITICAL.

Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of Madison, wants the honor of being delegate from the State-at-large to the Denver convention.

In a brief message sent to Congress President Roosevelt called attention to the necessity for further legislation on the subject of anarchy.

Judge George Gray's boom for the presidential nomination was launched in Pennsylvania at a meeting of prominent Democrats in Philadelphia.

Judge Virgil P. Smith, of Somerset, is a candidate for delegate to the Denver National Convention. He is opposed by Col. R. M. Jackson, of London.

The Alabama Supreme Court, in a decision rendered held both the general prohibition and the 9 o'clock closing laws to be constitutional and effective.

The bill putting wood pulp and print paper on the free list has a fair chance to pass the House. All of the Democrats and 80 Republicans are said to favor the bill.

Washington politicians are of the opinion that the result of the Republican primaries of New York practically eliminates Hughes from the race for the nomination for President.

Gov. M. R. Patterson opened his campaign for a renomination at Nashville and defended his Administration. He devoted a considerable part of his speech to his pardon record and his record on the temperance issue.

Bryan men in New York will make a hard fight to have the delegation from that State instructed for W. J. Bryan for President, and may take the question to the floor of the convention.

William O. Bradley made two speeches in the Third district in behalf of Fairbanks, at Glasgow and at Bowling Green. He admitted that the presidential race will be a close one, and that the Republicans will have their hands full to win.

Eld. Joseph Ballou is a friend in need and indeed to the Stanford Christian church. Whenever that church is without a pastor he fills the pulpit and never fails to deliver an interesting sermon. Eld. Ballou is a grand old gentleman in many ways and if Lincoln county had more of such citizens we would all get along better.

The members of the Epworth League and all the members of the Sunday school are requested to meet at the Methodist church Tuesday night to practice for Easter services. G. H. Burton is under arrest at Somerset charged with running a blind tiger on Fishing Creek. There are 12 indictments against him.

The fiscal court of Pulaski has appropriated $1,000 for the improvement of the public square in Somerset. The city council, it is claimed, will appropriate $2,000 for the same cause and a handsome fountain will adorn the square.

The Pulaski County Fiscal Court, by unanimous vote, decided not to donate the Public Square in the city of Somerset for a street fair and it now seems as if the local lodge of Eagles will have to take their big exhibition to another section of the city.—Somerset Times.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. This clever Coffee Substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Space forbids an extended mention this issue but we will give the details in full in our next.

We are in receipt of an invitation to the marriage of Miss Emma Owsley, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McAlister, formerly of this place, but now residents of Way, Miss., to Mr. Henry B. Don Varrick is by the great stallion, S. H. R. 23195, 2nd dam by Onward (one of the very best sons of George Wilkes). Onward was out of Dolly and no mare ever produced 2 such illustrious sons as Onward and Director. Onward Silver won at Transylvania in 1903, a 7 hand stallion, defeating such tigers as State Jay 2300%, and Chain Shot. The same year he won the Banner Memorial and Massachusetts in broken heats. Don Varrick's 1st dam by Wilkes Boy by George Wilkes and a full sister to 23195, 2nd dam by Mingo Patchen, she the dam of Rubber 23195, Billy Wilton 2320 and Miss R. 2323. This rich inheritance of speed and blood lines should appeal to the public who will be pleased.
